

Starlight Message From Gloria Star

The Sun Cycle in Virgo 2022 Regroup, Review, Rethink

As we round the bend of the year, attention centers upon the finer points and details. We're still recovering from the scars of the pandemic, and not really confident about where we stand in its uncertain course. Yet there's a powerful push-pull adding to a restless quality underscoring a desire to feel safe and secure. The cosmic cycles now provide an invitation for each of us to find the special qualities that can lead to healing and regeneration. Once these qualities are found, where do you go next? Think back to the first time you took a risk – like diving into the deep end of the pool – hopefully after at least one preparatory lesson in the basics. Or, perhaps you're an even bolder risk-taker?

The clockwork timing of the cosmic year brings us to a new phase focused on all those finer points. When the Sun enters Virgo, August 22, 2022 at 11:16 PM EDT, there's still a dangling sense of mistrust and disruption energized by the transit of Uranus over the North Node of the Moon. (We explored this in depth in the last Starlight Message.) As the Sun moves into Virgo, this short Uranus aspect ends – just in time to welcome the scads of details we all must address in our lives. That's a Virgo thing – the details – along with a quality of perfection that seems to appear at the most vulnerable moment. When the Virgo Sun cycle begins, the Sun is in a tense square connection to restless and assertive Mars. The Sun-Mars square stimulates a kind of nervous anger that can lead to trouble if not addressed. During the Sun's cycle in Virgo, we all have access to the vault of possibilities that can arise as we address what needs to be done, and seek the best ways to accomplish the task. Now that you know about the Sun-Mars tension, you may find it easier to keep yourself busy doing the things that will free up your talents and special abilities. ...Very Virgo. During this Virgo cycle 2022, it's easier to access and utilize the tools and abilities that help to get the done. It's a great time to learn something new, or teach something you do well to an eager student.

One of the slower-moving planets, Uranus, enters its months-long retrograde on August 24th, stimulating the qualities of innovation, revolutionary change and breakthrough. We're experiencing a cycle that's like an audit. Uranus retrograde can amplify what is working, or what may not be going along very well. During the Sun's cycle in Virgo, practical tests of the recent (and not-so-recent) changes in our world can expose the true nature of the experiments

Going successful, but using what has been learned knowledge – may yield results that take us different and hopefully improved path. Finally, normal for yourself? This Uranus cycle may allow not working in your life, and envision the possibility something different. After all, Uranus is not about what has been, but can be very much about what's changing.

If you're looking for a time to take steps onto a new path or to reach out and make contact with someone, take advantage of the momentum from the new lunar phase that begins with Virgo New Moon on August 27th, 2022 (4:17 AM EDT). The New Moon continues that tension with

The Full Moon in Pisces on September 10th at 5:59 AM EDT marks a period of greater intensity and heightened intuitive sensitivity. Everything may seem to either fall short, or be too much. Satisfaction can be difficult to achieve, unless we take advantage of the flexible nature of Pisces, going with the flow instead of rowing against it.

Just after the Full Moon, Mercury retrogrades on September 10th at 11:38 PM EDT (continuing until October 2nd). This is definitely one of those Mercury Retrogrades when business deals are best under discussion or review, but not finalized. The possibility for change is strong, or what once seemed important may have changed and need to be addressed differently. Mercury is in Virgo for this retrograde cycle, adding to the potentially frustrating mental gymnastics that are likely during its time sliding backward through the zodiac, Do use the time to test, revise, review, edit and negotiate. Jupiter, still in its retrograde cycle, waffles at a midpoint between Saturn and Uranus during much of September, with Jupiter in an irritating semi-square contact to Saturn on September 21st. This energetic group involves Jupiter, Saturn and Uranus –bringing forward frustrations resulting from a need to break out of old patterns. Honest exploration of the possibilities of change, with an open mind and refreshed approach may lead to resolution of some conflicts, or illuminate a path forward that better suits the needs emerging now.
