Optimum Child

Good news! There is a cosmic instruction manual for each child! Since childhood is very different from adult years, I've integrated the concepts of developmental psychology and astrology, and created a special report for the purpose of exploring the uniqueness of each child. This is a wonderful report for new parents, but parents and grandparents of older children will also find a lot of excellent information. Highlights of Optimum Child include chapters on psychological needs and development, creative expression and talents, intellectual development—and more! Include the child's name as you want it on the report, and the Gender of the child. Emailed as PDF - $35
Printed & mailed - $40

Just for Women

(Formerly titled: Woman to Woman)

We all know that men and women are different. Based upon decades of astrological counseling, I've written a special natal astrological interpretation for women. Each report highlights the many facets of a woman's life, and the challenges she faces in today's world. Clean information about where the planets are in your chart and their special meanings tailored to the experience of being a whole, powerful woman! Highlights of Just for Women include: meeting the world on your own terms, how you approach love, how you deal with sex, money and power, what you need to feel confident and self-assured, and much more. The average length is 35 pages. $40 / $45

Evolutionary Change: Your Personal Progressions

Progressions represent what's happening within, and symbolize the process of gradual unfolding self awareness and self-expression. Much like the blossoming of a flower, progressions illustrate periods of specific personal growth. Based upon the concept of a "day for a year," secondary progressions symbolize developments that occur over the decades of your life. Each progressed report covers a five-year period, to provide an overview of what's happening ... from the inside ... out $30 / $35
